

Local kids make Broadway debut . . . on upper Broadway

Over 40 local children performed an array of dance styles May 22 during the third annual Broadway Performing Arts Center dance recital at the Muscota/Amistad auditorium on Broadway near W. 204th Street. The dance students are part of Broadway Performing Arts, a Washington Heights-based program begun in 2008 by Tina Casula Gross. Visit www.broadwaypac.com for more information.